

Municipality Solves OQ Puzzle with eWebOQ

October 28, 2003 – City of Shelby, North Carolina has chosen eWebOQ in conjunction with its OQ DOT Pipeline training plans.

The Shelby decision was reached after their hands on evaluation of the eWebOQ product was completed and also after interfacing with the eWebOQ technical team. Shelby decision makers wanted a product that would be easy for everyone to use, easy to maintain, and also easy to update. Among the factors that led to the decision was the automatic scoring of course tests and the automatic record keeping feature as well.

The city will be able to assign personal curriculum, edit OQ courses and tests, and grow the system as they see fit.

No CD's to mess with or to send back to get updated.

OQ Partner's eWebOQ is 100% remote hosted which allows for 24 hour 7 day a week access.
